Legacy of Excellence Award Nomination Form

The Legacy of Excellence Award is based on 5 gateways (found on the AGBM web site) that celebrate the ongoing contributions that Black males make to their families and communities as well as their legacy of excellence. During the LOE Awards Celebration we will also present the Optimal Achiever Award – in the name of Dr. John T. Chissell. ALL NOMINATIONS MUST INCLUDE A CURRENT BIO ALONG WITH A PHOTOGRAPH (an electronic format is preferred).

GATEWAYS AND NOMINATIONS

Our Heroes: We honor those Black males whose contributions typically go unrecognized. This award is to acknowledge their acts of kindness or courage in or for the benefit of their families and/or communities. I nominate:

Passing the Baton: We salute those Black men who share their resources and volunteer their time and talents in an effort to empower their people. We honor the Black males who provide counseling, guidance and mentoring. I nominate:

Keepers of the Flame: We want to expose the world to the little known genius men of color have always possessed. So, we highlight our Black scholars, teachers, inventors and leaders. I nominate:

Our Better Halves: Here, we focus on how Black males are nourishing and nurturing their relationships with their partners. I nominate:

Our Future: We want the world to know that our young people are stepping up to the plate to do the right thing. So, we put the spotlight on the positive things our young Black males are doing in their communities to make a difference. I nominate:

Optimal Achiever Award: This award is intended for the outstanding African American high school senior, or college student; in the name of Dr. John T. Chissell. I nominate:
